

Richard Fothergill's Prophecy, May 2009

For htcd:

Give me your firstfruits (repeated three times)

Give me your firstfruits

Give me your firstfruits

Trust me with the future

Give me your future

I will open the storehouses of heaven and bless you and the daughter churches as you give away your best

Give away my heart, my time, my mercy, my people

Bless the mother church, and the daughter churches

I want to do more

Some are still looking over their shoulder

The Lord says, 'Don't do that, its not helping – look ahead to what I have next for you

Don't look over your shoulder but look to me

Look ahead to the future

I have much more to do

Much more for you to do

Tasks to be done

I want to see strategic growth

These things will be fulfilled

htcd is a strategically positioned group

Need to keep in step with God

Picture of a weird new plant – looked a bit like a banana plant but was a species not seen before. Many think it won't survive because it's new. It is a new thing/group

A weird new plant will grow

A banana tree will grow in Holy Trinity's garden

(?This thing) Holy Trinity will lead, will give birth to new ministries, new groups, outside your experience

some of you are looking back, over your shoulder
